This Bridge

*This bridge will only take you halfway there
To those mysterious lands you long to see:
Through gypsy camps and swirling Arab fairs
And moonlit woods where unicorns run free.
So come and walk awhile with me and share
The twisting trails and wondrous worlds I've known.
But this bridge will only take you halfway there —
The last few steps you'll have to take alone.*

The 1994 Bell

Montgomery Bell Academy
Nashville, Tennessee

Co-Editors:
Ryan Brukardt
Michael Haslam

Dedication

Over the past six years, Montgomery Bell Academy has undergone a transformation with the birth of a new curriculum, expanded opportunity, and beautiful facilities dedicated to developing students into well-rounded gentlemen with an enhanced appreciation for the arts. Under Dr. Paschall's leadership, the Joe C. Davis Building was constructed to provide an atmosphere suitable for artistic endeavors. For the first time in the school's history, musical performances, art exhibits, and theatre productions have become a mainstay in the MBA community.

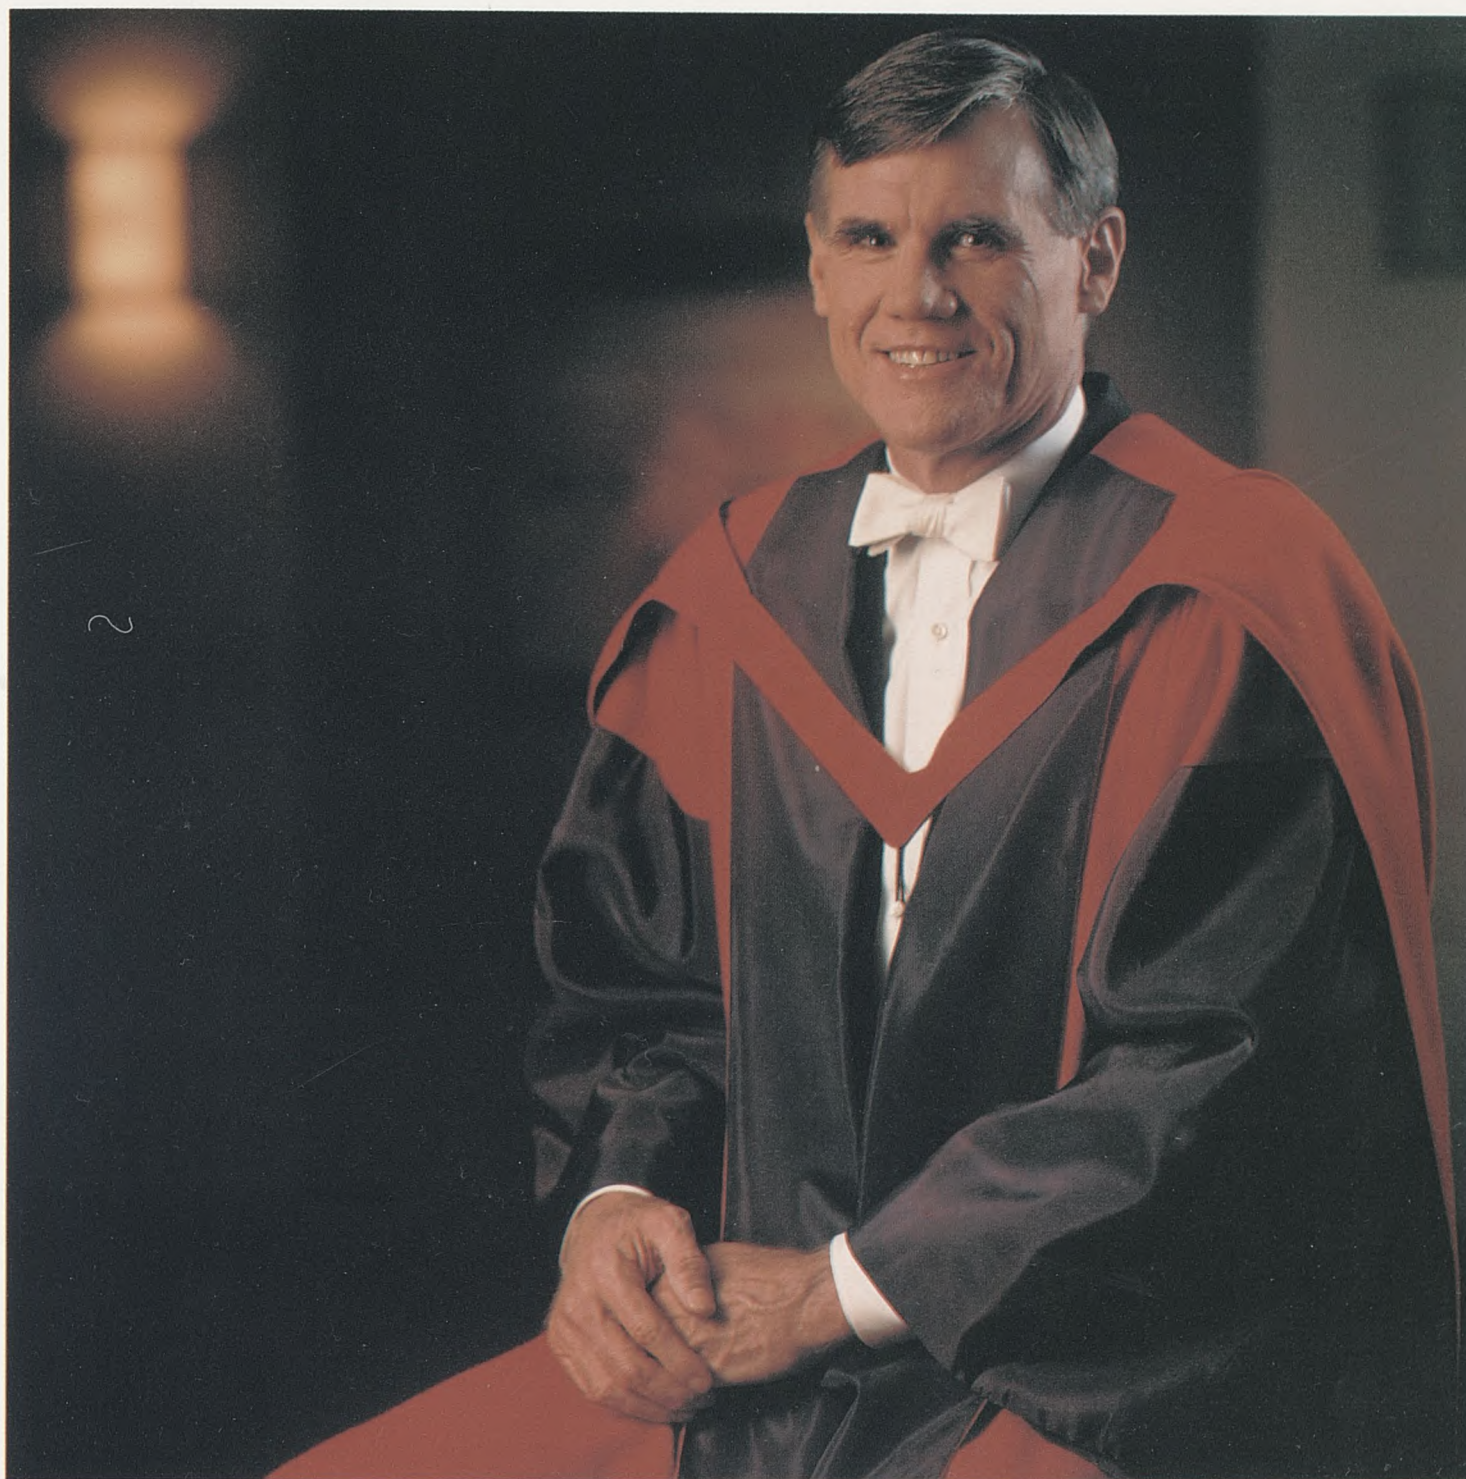

Following Dr. Paschall's example, the MBA community has developed a more inclusive attitude within itself. In the student body there has been a growing sense of acceptance and understanding with more sensitivity to the feelings of others.

The most remarkable aspect of Montgomery Bell Academy's growth throughout these six years is that it has been able to diversify without compromising its commitment to the pursuit of academic and athletic excellence.

With his eloquent speeches, his mesmerizing class lectures, and his genuine smile, Dr. Paschall has captured the respect and affection of everyone. For his love for the school as a headmaster, his passion for teaching, and his tireless efforts to make Montgomery Bell Academy a place where people feel welcome, we dedicate The 1994 Bell to Dr. Douglas D. Paschall.

I came to MBA in the 9th grade after deciding that public school wouldn't take me anywhere in life. My first word at MBA was "Fraa" meaning shoot in freshman football. I participated in the Dating Game at HH in the first fall of my Frosh year and became dormant until my Junior year. Then I became the Mac as one could see by my attendance at four Proms after taking care of all the ladies at the "More Wood" festival in Murray Kentucky. My Mac Daddy days ended quickly during one of those four Proms when I found my first love and she knows who she is. That didn't make sense, that's the point; "Fire in the hole, there's broken glass everywhere."; "He looks like he was hit by a train, I mean it was Bazaar."; "That don't make no nevermind I suppose"; My main wish: "abolish speed limits"; "I was trying to be impressive, Sir."; Hey Pitt, "We like it extreme" and "keep your arms and legs in the vehical at all times"; "Ernest Rides Again what was that about"; To all my friends and family- Thanks! Right now, while I am writing this, school seems to drag on without an end, but I know that when I look back, my stay here at MBA will appear to be a mere flicker in time. I have enjoyed the past six years, and I wouldn't change a thing about them, but still, I would love to live them once more. MBA has been a great blessing to me. There are so many teachers and coaches to thank that I won't begin, and I have made too many friends to count. There are no real highlights to mention: this school has been a constant force when things around me, such as college decisions, were unclear. I will remember my first day on campus when I couldn't find the art building as fondly as my final step towards my diploma. At MBA I have grown up, and just as I hate to leave my wonderful parents, who have supported me and loved me every step of the way, I also hate to leave my school. I thank MBA, I thank my parents, and I thank my Lord Jesus Christ for giving me all that I have and for carrying me every step of the way.

"Your reason and your passion are the rudder and the sails of your seafaring soul. If either your sails or your rudder be broken, you can but toss and drift, or else be held at a standstill in mid-seas. For reason, ruling alone, is a force confining; and passion, unattended, is a flame that burns to its own destruction. Therefore let your soul exalt your reason to the height of passion, that it may sing; and let it direct your passion with reason, that your passion may live through its own daily resurrection, and like the phoenix rise above its own ashes."

You see nothing but the springs of the machine and not the sublime workman who makes it function. You recognize around you only those whose positions have been assigned to them by some minister or king; you are unable to see those men whom God has placed above kings and ministers by giving them a mission to fulfill, rather than a position to occupy."—"And do you regard yourself as one of those extraordinary beings?"—"Yes, I'm one of them...I am a cosmopolite. Coming off last year's phenomenal season, the Big Red had only one goal for 1994: to return to the state tournament and repeat last year's performance.

Unfortunately, because of the loss of several key players, the team was not able to rely on the strength of only a few to carry the entire team. Many positions needed to be filled and some were filled quite capably.

The pitching rotation consisted of last year's staff minus R.A. Dickey. While this proved to be only a minor hindrance during the regular season as the team racked up a perfect 11-0 district record, the lack of depth proved to be insurmountable in tournament play. The team ended the year in the first round of Regional play to McGavock while compiling a record of 14 wins and 9 losses for the season.

Receiving All-District honors for Montgomery Bell were Parkes Owen, Loren Nash, Steve Bess, Dave Sifford, and Matt Garrett.

With four starters returning after a 20-win season, tremendous things were expected of the Big Red, and they delivered. Seniors Russ Allen, Andy Barrett, Ben Corbett, and Jonathan Henderson provided the leadership to steer the team to a record 29 wins. Sub-state was hosted by MBA for the first time in an amazing exhibition of school spirit for the romp over Franklin. MBA gained a semi-final appearance in the state tournament by avenging an early season loss to Oakland as Andy Barrett's three-point play with 29 seconds left put the Big Red over the top. Science Hill proved to be too much for anyone as they rolled to the state championship. For the second straight year, two District 11-AAA teams made it to the State Tournament.

Will Coles led the scoring with 16.5 points per game as Andy Barrett (15 ppg) and Ben Corbett (15 ppg) both shot over 40% from three-point land. Hendu and Rob Welhoelter rounded out the starting five by averaging 10 points each. Key reserves Mark Dunkerley and Ted Morrissey provided stability. Russ Allen contributed 6 ppg, showing his superior expeditiousness against Hillwood sparking a second half 30-point swing. Logan Verner also came off the bench.

Coach Bowers' departure for the football post was a major blow, but the hiring of previous Franklin Coach Kyle Bills should sustain the success enjoyed in our 3 straight 20-win seasons. The rise of Allen Cermak, Brent Osborn, Grant Martin, Cory Yates, and crowd favorite Mike Godwin combined with the return of Coles, Dunkerley, Morrissey, Welhoelter, and Verner should make next season an exciting one.

Cross Country

The 1993 cross-country team had another successful season, despite numerous injuries to top runners. Philip Guengerich's season-ending compartment syndrome, Taylor Harris' fractured ankle, John Farringer's nagging hip, Jonathan Fly's exhaustion and passing out in several meets, and Zach Skipper's thigh injury slowed down but did not stop the Big Red runners. Younger runners such as Scott Bowen, Jim Alley, and Joey Martinez, along with veteran co-captain, Geoff Zimmerman, filled spots left by their injured teammates and helped the varsity team do very well in large, competitive meets. MBA placed in the Top 10 in both the A.F. Bridges and the Tennessee Classic, placed second in the Gallatin Invitational, took third at the Lexington Catholic Invitational, and won both the Metro Championship and the Region VI Championship. The victory in the Region Meet kept MBA's streak alive at 13 consecutive championships, and it allowed seniors Taylor Harris and Geoff Zimmerman to escape living in the world of running. The team then advanced to the state meet for a state record sixteenth consecutive appearance; in this meet, the team faced sub-freezing temperatures but still ran to a tenth place finish. Overall, the team had a great year in terms of success and in terms of fun (at events such as summer camp and the Breakfast Run). Finally, the team would like to thank the coaches, Pruitt, Corzine, and Rundberg, for their time, hard work, and friendship. Good luck to the 1994 squad!

Steele, Al Fuller, Patrick King.

The 1993 Varsity football team opened its season at the beginning of August with the hopes that coach Tommy Owen's health would improve so that he could return to his head coaching spot. On August 26, however, Coach Owen passed away and the team was heart-stricken. But the team lifted their heads high as Coach Owen would have wanted them to and looked to Coach Floyd Elliot for leadership. The team was determined to have a winning season and looked to the seniors to lead the way. Before embarking on the season, the team elected Matt King as captain and Brandon Shea and Derrick Buckspan as co-captains.

Quarterbacks Parkes Owen and Andrew Walker led MBA's offense. Tailbacks DeLemos, King, and Davenport, fullbacks Martin and Gaston, and wingback Gaston provided a highly explosive running attack. Creating the holes up front were linemen Shea, Rose, Sgarlatta, Claverie, Sifford, and Sloan. The receiving corps was composed of tight end John Downey and wideouts Thombs, Hardison, and Morrissey. The Big Red punting was handled by Brandon Shea and the kicking by J.T. Davenport. On the defensive side of the ball, linebackers Sloan, Martin, and Huggins provided leadership and strength throughout the season. Ends Gaston and Shea along with the defensive linemen Rose, Claverie, Corts, and Sifford filled up the middle. Providing excellent pass coverage were corners Stahl and Thombs and safeties Buckspan, Gaston, and Davenport.

The football team would like to thank all the fans and the cheerleaders that supported us throughout the season and would also like to thank coaches Elliot, Thurmond, Regen, Downey, and Morrissey for the great job they did all season long. To Coach Owen, we will always keep your spirit next to our hearts and keep you in our thoughts.

After the team trying out in early September, Boom Boom (Richard), Underweed (Larry), Pooper (Cooper), Abdula Hindu (Jonathan), and Pookie (Stephen) were all eager to come, see, and conquer everyone in their paths. The season began with a field trip to Cookeville where we would be competing in the Early Bird at Cookeville C.C. We tied for third with Baylor behind Knoxville Farragut and Cookeville. Everyone played exceptionally well, but we knew that our work was cut out for us. During the regular season, we faced many more challenges than in previous years. Stratford and Ryan also gave us a good match, but let's be honest. Fortunately, we were able to defeat Pearl Cohn and Hillsboro by a combined 8,975 strokes in just nine holes. During that match on Wednesday, I was able to read The Unvanquished by Faulkner, do a rough draft, and complete my final draft before it was due on Thursday. The regular season ended, and once again, the Big Red had compiled an impressive record of 14-1-1 with our only loss from Brentwood High. The District came and Boom Boom led the way with 72. Underwood followed with a 76, Pooper with a 77. Abdula Hindu and Pookie wore shirts that were too tight around the collar, and as they finished, they were gasping for some fresh air. Nevertheless, the team overcame Hillwood in a playoff to win the tournament. Next week, we played the Region at Shelbyville. Today would be a day not looked upon favorably by the Big Red. The only sensation would be Underweed's domination and first place trophy after shooting 75. At the end of the day, Stratford had claimed the team trophy, and only Underweed and Boom Boom would advance to the State Tournament. Unfortunately, Abdula Hindu wore the same shirt he had during the district, and Pooper had borrowed Pookie's shirt. Without their teammates, Larry and Richard advanced to the State held at Henry Horton. At the end of 36 holes, Richard had shot 77, 78 and Larry had shot 77, 86. Overall the team had a fine season full of doubles, triples, and quads. Hopefully, Cooper and the gang will have a good season next year. I'm so sure they will, really. P.S. - Thanks for everyone's support. There were so many fans, I could not possibly write to all of you, but thanks again.

The Lacrosse team had another successful season this year, compiling a 15-1 record. Highlights included winning the state title at the TSLA Championships, dominating the Nashville Invitational Tournament, and having two players, Hugh Gaston and Anton Hie, distinguished with All-American honors.

The season opener, a win over a surprising USN team, was followed by another narrow victory over CBHS of Memphis. Defensive might proved to be a valuable asset in the next game, a road victory over long-time rival McCallie. A week later the Big Red took on the new Davidson Rockets, boasting a 10-0 score in the first half of play.

Then it was time for MBA Lacrosse to test its skill abroad. The team travelled to take on three-time defending State Champs Durham Academy and Charlotte Country Day High School. In the match the MBA squad suffered its only regular season defeat, losing to DA. In an inspirational game against Country Day, they managed to come back from a 5-0 deficit and won the game. After a week of rest, the team was ready for the Nashville Invitational Lacrosse Tournament. As defending champions of the tournament, MBA was awarded a bye in the first round, and defeated MUS in the second round. They went on to the finals against Brentwood and finally captured the title trophy.

Because of their outstanding record, the MBA Lacrosse team made it to the State Tournament. In the first round they were to take on MUS, whom they easily defeated. So they would play against CBHS for the state title. The Big Red squad won the game, capturing their third consecutive state championship. It was now time for MBA to travel to St. Louis to play in the Mid-American Lacrosse Conference championship match against Lafayette. In a hard-fought battle on a hot day MBA allowed 15 Lancer goals, while scoring only 6 of their own.

The MBA Riflery Team concluded its season with a surprising amount of success, by bringing home a trophy from every preliminary competition. The team record included two third places and one second place. Varsity shooters included Sean Sherrod, David Berry, Brooks Martin, Zach Skipper, Haynes Gentry, and Jimmy Rupley, some of whom shot on the junior varsity team with Daniel Rivers, Shooter Jennings, and Sean Cunningham. The team did well considering that only two members of the team participated last year.

The true test of the team was the competition that they faced in the League and State Tournaments. The team came out of the League Tournament with a third-place trophy. After tying for first place with a student from

The State Tournament did not go as well. It differs from other matches in that each member must shoot two rounds of four positions, once for individual honors and another for the team. In the individual high rankings were Brooks Martin (2nd), Sean Sherrod, and David Berry. A tie was broken by the standing scores between Brooks Martin and the same student at Lipscomb. Both shot a 368. The Lipscomb student, however, scored three points higher on his standing target. The team shot a total of 1356, ninety points behind the first-place team. Brooks Martin shot the highest score in a tournament for the year. The team ended a good year with a fourth place finish in the State Tournament.

With the loss of eleven seniors including a majority of last year's starting lineup, the 1994 soccer team was to rely heavily on numerous upcoming underclassmen. Returning varsity members included seniors Barrett, Thombs, Jack, and Gibson. Also returning were juniors Davenport, Griffith, and Langfitt. Newcomers were Farley, Wieck, Blount, Markham, Cermak, and "The Gap" Mixon. The Big Red began training in late February with Coach Lanier's annual winter soccer sessions. The team defeated a strong BGA team but was taken by surprise by an extremely talented Hillsboro squad in two preseason scrimmages. Early season victories included a 2-0 win over CPA and an inspiring come-from-behind victory of 4-3 over Clarksville

Northeast. The season proved to be a "roller coaster" for the Big Red, as the crew found themselves in a very competitive district. The team split games in the Franklin Invitational tournament with a 0-2 lost to Franklin High and a 3-2 triumph over Notre Dame. The highlights of the season were a miraculous 3-1 victory over Brentwood, and an impressive tie with Hendersonville (this game also included the ejection of J.T. "Mad Dog" Davenport). The rest of the season, however, was all downhill as MBA lost to McGavock, Ryan, and USN in the District semi-finals. Despite not making the sub-state, the Big Red enjoyed an exciting season under the brilliant guidance of Coach Lanier and his merry sidekicks Fraley and Willcutts.

The 1993-1994 MBA Swim Team had a successful year, compiling a dual meet record of 6-1, capturing a region second place, and swimming to a prestigious tenth place in the State Tournament. The team was led by seniors and co-captains Ryan Brukardt and Thomas Lee. The highlight of the year came with the 91-76 victory over Brentwood High School in a dual meet, showing the supreme power of the MBA swim team. The all-mighty Big Red Wave waved over LaVergne, winning by over 100 points, Father Ryan (one of the few MBA teams to defeat the cannon-painting, original prank designers, even though they have been painting the cannons purple for like 20 years now... no really, we have no idea that they are going to paint the cannons before every MBA v. Ryan game), and USN. The region meet took a nasty turn as Brentwood got lucky on the 200 meter Medley Relay, but the Big Red was not to be discouraged as they swam 3 region records in the 200 meter freestyle relay, the 400 meter freestyle relay, and the 500 yard freestyle as the world champion J. Kane swam to another surprising victory over the nearest Brentwood competitor only beating him by 35.096 seconds. Big Daddy Kane is the team idol and continued his success as he swam in the state meet. But thanks to the superior governing and supporting skills of Ryan and Thomas, the Big Red managed to place second in the Region. Great contributors to the swim team cause were swimmers Brandon Erlandson, Chris Nalbantyan, J. Kane, Sam Kuykendall, Jonathan and Peter Chen, Thomas Lee, and of course the ever-present Ryan Brukardt who also wrote this article and edited this yearbook with Michael Haslam. The MBA Swim Team would like to thank Coach Small and Coach Rundberg for their help and their comedy.

The 1994 MBA tennis team continued its domination over local and state-wide foes this season. The Big Red, playing the toughest schedule in the state, compiled a 17-1-1 record. The team started off with a decisive victory over traditional rival MUS. After this victory, the team waltzed through district and other local competition. MBA was ready for the biggest week of the season. During this time the team faced Brentwood High and powerful McCallie. MBA went into the Brentwood match without captain Jim Bowen, but managed to escape with a 5-4 victory. Going to the McCallie match, MBA was ready to face the state's #1 team. With victories coming from 3 of the 5 singles, and 2 of the 3 doubles, the team pulled out the biggest victory in MBA tennis history. A disappointing 4th place finish in the Carter Invitational proved to the team that we were not invincible.

region tournaments with a great amount of confidence. Bill McGugin placed first in singles in the District and second in the Region, while Daniel McGugin took second in the District and first in the Region. Randy Howell and Charles Warner took the doubles titles in both the District and the Region, with the team of Jim Bowen and Jake Beasley finishing second.

The Big Red cruised through the Region, District and Substate championships and went to Chattanooga ready to bring home the State Championship trophy. A grueling four hour victory against MUS provided MBA with a semi-final victory. Within 90 minutes, the Big Red had to face a fired-up McCallie team. MBA fell in the team finals, bringing home the second place trophy.

Bill reached the semi-finals of individual singles, and the team of Howell/Warner brought home the State Championship in the doubles.

The Varsity Track Team began the year with the goal of winning the Team State Relay title. After compiling a 4-1 dual meet record and a strong third in the Mid-South Classic at McCallie, the team felt the goal was realistic. In the Doug Hall Relays, MBA placed second behind McGavock. Later, MBA was prepared to beat McGavock in the Region Qualifying Team Relays. However, Hunters Lane beat MBA. Failing to qualify for the Team State Relays, MBA planned to avenge the loss in the Region Championships. Furthermore, the team placed second in the Optimist and fourth in the Banner. After the field events, MBA was in control of the meet with 58 points. In the first three events, MBA no-placed, dropped a baton, and was disqualified. The disappointment of the beginning events quickly changed to celebration as MBA regained its poise to run off with victory over Hunters Lane. The Varsity Wrestling team finished up its season with a regular season dual match record of 12 and 4. The wrestlers toppled such traditional powerhouses as Hillwood, Hillsboro, and Brentwood Academy in head-to-head competition. Unfortunately, they suffered painful losses to opponents such as Father Ryan and Overton, thus finishing the regular season 3rd in the District, just short of Region dual tournament qualification.

In tournaments such as the Ryan Invitational, the Overton Invitational and the Hendersonville Invitational, MBA often placed wrestlers in the Top 10. In its final and most crucial tournament of the season, the Region Individual Tourney at MBA, the grapplers did extremely well, qualifying wrestlers for the state tournament. qualifying wrestlers for the state tournament. All taking 3rd place were Andrew Sanders -103 lbs., John Roe-125 lbs., Jay Cooper-130 lbs., Andrew Douglas-135 lbs., Chenault Sanders-140 lbs., Cory Morgan-150 lbs., and placing fourth was Barrett Rose- 275lbs. Scoring points and wrestling well for the Big Red in the Region, but not placing were David Sanders-112 lbs., Will McKeand-119 lbs,(who suffered a concussion in the semi-final), Will Bartholomew -160 lbs., and Scott Denbo- 189 lbs. Although picked to get fifth or sixth place, the wrestling team placed an impressive third, even without one of its key starters, Alan Roe, who suffered a practice room injury. Overall the Big Red wrestled extremely well this season and with many returning lettermen, Varsity Wrestling will surely have great successes in years to come.

ARCHIVES

The MBA literary magazine, the Archives, has succeeded once again in providing an outlet for the artistic expressions of the student body. This year the Archives staff toiled over the multitude of submissions of art, poetry, and prose to fill the pages of the two issues that were published. Dr. Batten along with several other administrative judges chose the best work from each of the three categories. This year a special issue was dedicated to retiring headmaster Douglas D. Paschall. A special thanks goes out to Dr. Batten for his guidance and to the Mothers' Auxiliary for their underwriting, from Lewis Jones, Brooks Martin, Mark Garton, Shawn Lehman, Will O'Hare, Chip Loser, Matthew Tapia, Ryan Brukhardt, and Larry Fleischman.

BELL RINGER

The Bell Ringer had a very successful fiftieth year during the 1993-1994 school year. The oldest high school newspaper in Nashville, the Bell Ringer began the year moving from the traditional "newspaper closet" (Carter Room 20) to a spacious office on the third floor of Ball Hall. During the transition, Robert West and his staff continued to report on the latest News, Sports, and Opinions, sometimes laying pages out in Robert's bedroom to make a deadline. The dedication of Robert and his staff continued Montgomery Bell Academy's tradition of having the best student produced newspaper in Nashville. The Bell Ringer would like especially to thank Dr. John Griffith, Bell Ringer faculty sponsor, for his input and hard work that has made the 1993-1994 Bell Ringer a very successful and enjoyable experience for all involved.

Following a long tradition of hard work, this year's annual staff labored, and worked, and labored a little more to produce the 1994 BELL, which you now hold in your hands. This year a permanent Senior Bio staff, consisting of Dan Ferguson, Rishi Malhotra, and Anton Hie, was added, whose efforts put more efficiency into an already well-oiled BELL machine. Despite seemingly overwhelming distractions (Nikki's ubiquitous presence and the theft of the CECILIAN were particularly disruptive), the staff, under the leadership of co-editors Ryan Brukardt and Michael Haslam, put in over 15,000 hours of work to give birth to the 1994 BELL. Hope you like it; if not, we don't care.

The editors, ecstatic to have gotten their hands on a few rare spring break t-shirts.

BOYS CLUB TUTORS

For the fifth year, MBA participated in the Boys and Girls Club of Middle Tennessee by sending student volunteers to provide academic tutoring and brotherly companionship to elementary school children. Seniors, Juniors, Sophomores, and Freshmen travelled to the Thompson Lane United Way Project on Tuesdays and Thursdays from four to five in the afternoon. Children ranging from six to twelve years of age go to the Club after school to play basketball, do homework, or just talk. Susan Freeman, coordinator of the tutorial program, must deal single-handedly with rambunctious children and depends heavily on the help of the MBA tutors devoted enough to lend their time.

CHAMBER ORCHESTRA

The Chamber Orchestra continued to grow in its second year under the direction of Dr. David Cassel. The Chamber Players consists of 18 separate groups of mixed ensembles, including wind, string, piano, and vocal musicians. Coming from both MBA and Harpeth Hall, the groups meet separately, but also as a group on Friday afternoons. The Chamber Orchestra played three times this year, performing both a Christmas and spring concert, as well as at the dedication of the Paschall Theatre.

Once again, MBA cheerleading had a successful year in 1993, giving encouragement to the football team as well as to the crowd. Led by the Big Red Dog (a.k.a. Anton Hie), the cheerleaders dazzled the crowds with pyramids, 2-man handstands, and backflips courtesy of Chad White. Sean Sherrod and Pitt Hickerson added brute strength to the wild extravaganza of lifts and formations, and Judd English and his dog brought tears of joy to both young and old. Next year's squad will have a tough act to follow as all five go on to college.

CHESS CLUB

The MBA Chess Club had another successful year, led by president Jason Bennett, vice-president Ian McClure, secretary/treasurer Sean Sherrod, and sergeant-at-arms David Gregory. This was a rebuilding year for the team after losing two seniors, including the top player. This year the Big Red focused on improving its skills with weekly matches encompassing all variants of chess, including the infamous Bughouse. The Club was also pared down to a manageable level, with membership dues introduced to keep the Club supplied with boards and pieces. The Chess Club will remain a vibrant force in the years to come, being led by Ian McClure, Daymon Hailey, and David Gregory.

CHORUS

This year's chorus could easily be remembered as the best in recent memory. Dr. David Cassell set out to create a chorus balanced between performance and music theory. By the end of the year, the chorus could not only sing but also understand the innerworkings of the pieces. They worked all fall on the Christmas season, performing at several churches as well as the main concert at MBA. The second season opened with the dedication of the Paschall Theatre; the chorus also performed a spring concert at Harpeth Hall along with the Chamber Orchestra. Dr. Cassell and his crew finished off the year with a rousing performance at Commencement.

CUM LAUDE

The Cum Laude Society was established to recognize the achievement of outstanding students in high schools across the nation. MBA received its charter in 1980, and has since recognized new inductees from the junior and senior classes every spring. This year's ceremony included the induction of Dr. Bill Leverette, a professor and author at Furman. Along with numerous faculty members, the standing student members were Taylor Harris, Hugh Gaston, Jim Bowen, and Michael Haslam.

"Boys, these judges like good speakers." With these words, the MBA Debate team stood unified against one of the toughest fields of competition in recent memory. At Wake Forest, the units of Bobby Hartman/Praveen Kambam and Womack/Risen broke, but neither team got past octofinals. Not overcome, Bobby stunned the nation by changing his name to Robert, and then by reaching quarters at the Charlotte Latin. Praveen and Clay later broke fifth at Bronx, got to quarters, and brought back a few nifty hubcaps for Mr. Tate's Caddy. Robby G. and "E-Dog" Womack were later invited to the Glenbrook Round Robin, won the Highland Park Round Robin, and reached quarters at Emory. In LD, Mark Roden qualified for nationals, and the policy novices won just about everything, including Woodward, which placed them as the best in the country.

FCA got started this year by sending president Joey Delemos and Vice-President Barrett Rose to Leadership Camp in Bristol, TN. The two thus planned for a rewarding year along with Secretary Dave Brown and Treasurer Dave Sifford. FCA began the year with a cookout, where Dave Brown took control of the volleyball courts and left opponents picking sand from their teeth. Later in the fall FCA heard speaker Jeff Fraley and held the annual Chubby Bunny Contest, at which both Barrett Rose and Mark Dunkerley broke the previous record of 25 marshmallows. Thanks to the help of Mr. Regen, FCA got involved in a weekly service project to deliver bread to local missions, and helped at the 5th Street soup kitchen over Christmas. In spring, FCA hosted several speakers and sponsored a 3-on-3 basketball tournament.

JAZZ BAND

This year, the Jazz Band continued the remarkable strides made since its creation two years ago. Along with a bolstered main band, a beginning band was set up, and after months of hard work, they performed at the Christmas and Spring concerts. The Regular Band, bringing back many of last year's experienced players, performed Christmas and Spring concerts and also at the dedication of the Paschall Theatre.

JUNIOR HONOR SOCIETY

The Junior Honor Society recognizes those students in grades eight through ten who have attained high academic achievement but are not yet eligible for the Cum Laude Society. To be eligible, a student must have a 90 average over three consecutive semesters at MBA. Membership is maintained until the end of the sophomore year by keeping up satisfactory academic performance and personal conduct. New members this year include: Dave Alexander, Preston Bottomy, Scott Bowen, Mark Burish, Clay Callison, Joey Crace, Brew Davis, Grant Dickson, David Gilbert, Michael Griffin, Yasunori Hashimura, Keigo Hirakawa, Rob Humbracht, Aaron Lara, Chris Nalbantyan, Will Parsons, Nathan Sabel, Michael Stahl, and John Wheeler.

MOCK TRIAL

MBA's Mock Trial team enjoyed another great year of success. The prosecution was headed by Bradley Coburn and John Farringer, and the defense was led by Robert "Don't call me Bobby" Hartman and Will O'Hare. In the City Meet, The first team went undefeated including a victory over Harpeth Hall. However, the heads of the Mock Trial Universe decided that it would be better not to power match, but to use the average point total in each round to decide the victors. With this newly created system, MBA came in a close second behind Harpeth Hall. In the State Tournament, the Big Red machine rolled over the Chattanooga Home Schoolers, Greenville, and Science Hill, but lost to McCallie (the eventual State Champs) in the fourth round, thus ending up with a respectable third place finish. Again this season would not have been as enjoyable or successful as it was without the tireless efforts of our coaches Wade Cowan and Joe Mouer.

NATIONAL MERIT SCHOLARS

NATIONAL MERIT SEMIFINALISTS,(L-R): Jason Bennett, Taylor Harris, Adam Scott

Achievement in the National Merit Scholarship Program is determined by scores on the PSAT tests taken during the fall of one's sophomore year. This year, Taylor Harris was named a National Merit Scholar, the highest level of achievement, and Jason Bennett and Adam Scott were finalists. Commended students included Keith Claverie, Jim Bowen, Jonathan Glickstein, Mark Hardison, Michael Haslam, Will Hickerson, Anton Hie, Jason Sgarlata, Bruce Tarkington, and Robert West.

RECYCLE MBA

Recycle MBA, now four years old, is still doing its best to keep the campus clean. After procuring several more dozen new bins, the members of Recycle MBA continued to sustain its intense dedication by staying after school, emptying bins from each building, and transporting the glass, plastics, cans, paper, newspaper, and cardboard. The hard-working staff of only a dozen have continued to aid the organization in growing and expanding. With the amount of juniors that are participating, Recycle MBA is sure to have strong senior leadership next year. Recycle members: Eric Womack, Peter Ghishan, Joey Martinez, Ted Callahan.

SERVICE CLUB

The 1993-1994 Service Club continued its excellence in serving MBA and the surrounding community. The Club is open to all students who are willing to fulfill the requirement of twelve credits for entry and eight credits to maintain membership. Over the course of the year the Service Club took part in over twenty community service projects, and manned over thirty-five school events. The Service club has been able to give MBA gentlemen an opportunity to give back to their school and to their community, so that they can show their appreciation for all that they have been given.

SOUP KITCHEN

Back Row- Brooks Martin; Micah Horgan-Markman; Dan Ferguson; Michael Haslam

The Soup Kitchen program enjoyed one of its most successful years ever. The program was led this year by students Michael Haslam, Robert West, Jim Bowen, Brandon Shea, David Sifford, Stratton Huggins, Brooks Martin, Micah Horgan-Markman, and Erik Daugherty, along with teachers like Mr. Chenery, Ms. Lefebvre, Mr. Patrick, and the Soup Kitchen organizer Dr. Springer. On the first Saturday of every month, Dr. Springer leads a group of MBA students to the Holy Name Catholic Church at 9:00 a.m. There the group prepares a wide variety of foods for around 200 hungry Nashvillians. A thanks goes out to all those who help to cook, to serve, and to clean this year.

This year's Student Council made several steps to rebuilding its reputation as a powerful force after last year's dismal "Senior leadership." The able President of the Student Council, Jim Bowen, helped ease the tensions between students and faculty. Among other accomplishments, the Council helped to give the students access to the Student Lounge again. At one Basketball game, Vice-President, Derrick Buckspan organized a "half-time shoot-out" to raise money, while Treasurer, Michael Haslam gave his support to the Soup Kitchen program. Hopefully next year's Student Council will continue to play an important role in the microcosm we like to call MBA.

THEATRE ARTS

Behind the scenes of MBA's outstanding theatre productions was the Theatre Club, a dedicated group of students led by the irrepressible Brooks Martin. The Theatre Club met regularly during activity periods, but also stayed late for play practices and performances. Brooks Martin and Ryan Brukardt found themselves in charge of the sound and lighting, and they helped to bring that extra touch to every show. Not only was the Theatre Club integral in the production of MBA performances, but also in the hosting of many outside guests. Certainly this year's Theatre Club was the cornerstone of the MBA theatre community.

TOTOMOI

For a junior or senior to be considered for induction into the Totomoi Society, one must render outstanding service in three of the following categories: academics, athletics, student government, organizations, forensics, dramatics, publications, citizenship, and non-school extra-curriculars. At the fall tapping, seniors Taylor Harris and Michael Haslam were inducted, while at the spring tapping, juniors Rob Welhoelter, John Farringer, and Jonathan Fly were inducted.

ART PROGRAM

This year, the MBA Art program continued its tradition of bringing new ideas and perspectives to the campus. A video productions studio was established, and an exhibit of Russian street painters went on display in the Patrick Wilson Library. The main focus of the year centered on the Alumni Arts Festival, which included several exhibits, various musical performances, and a writing symposium and contest, all sponsored and directed by alumni. Congratulations must be given to Mr. Womack, Mrs. Paschall, and the rest of the department for such a fine year.

Mr. Stifler educates the students on the finer points of writing.

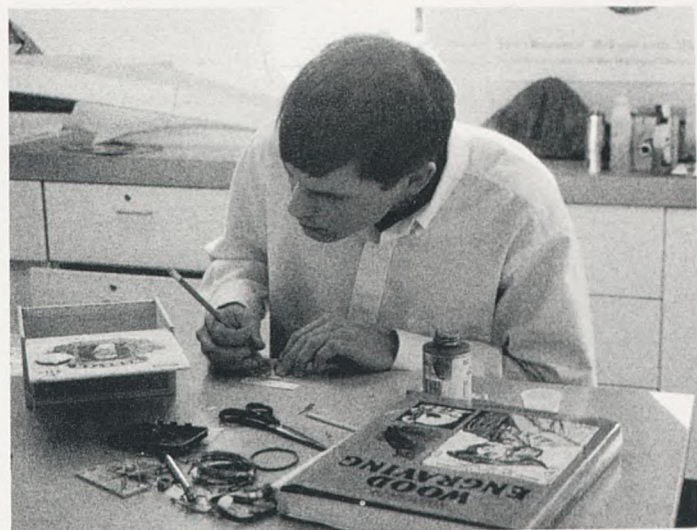

The video production studio even came with a free Freddie, but he was returned due to technical difficulties.

THEATRE

From an invalid to a disciple, with stop-offs to visit a king and to see what was fair in love and war: that describes the MBA theatre season for '93-'94. Theatre Arts became a full-time class, and our performing home got a name: the Paschall Theater. Tackling the likes of Shakespeare, Moliere, and Shaw proved not to be as perilous as climbing up and down scaffolding with the fog machine on full blast and storm sound effects at full volume. Brooks Martin and Ryan Brukardt got plenty of opportunity to display their technical wizardry as plenty of outside groups also found the MBA stage to their liking, as they presented everything from modern dance to chanting Tibetan monks. It was a season to remember with plenty of promise for things to come.

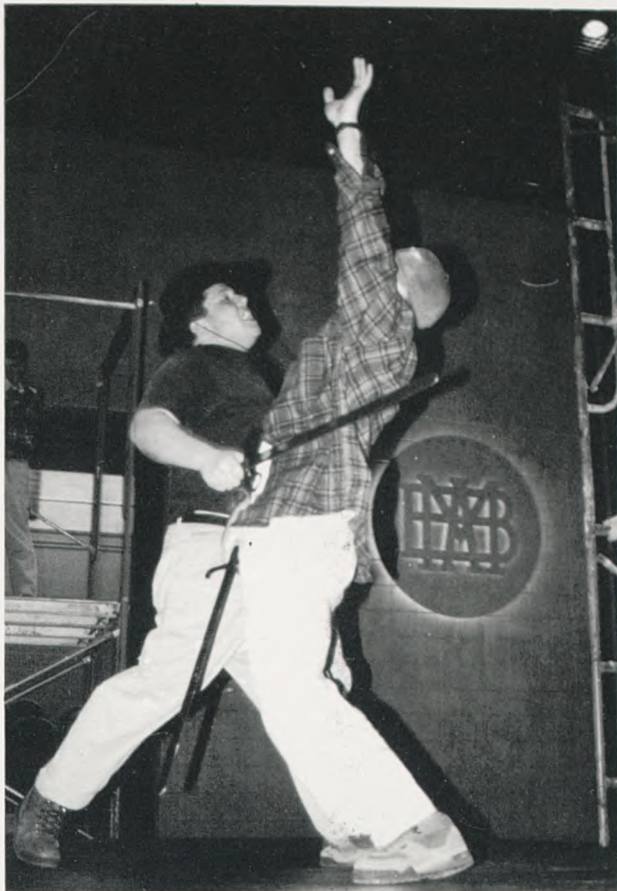

The cast of "All's Fair in Love and War", hard at work to bring you cutting edge entertainment.

...or is Beau just glad to see you?

DR. PASCHALL'S BIRTHDAY

March 9, 1994, marked Dr. Paschall's 50th birthday, and the whole school turned out to celebrate. The students and faculty gathered in the gym while Dr. Paschall was diverted. Mr. Smith then brought Dr. Paschall to the gym, where he stood overwhelmed as all present sang "Happy Birthday." Everyone then feasted on cakes provided by the Mother's Auxiliary.

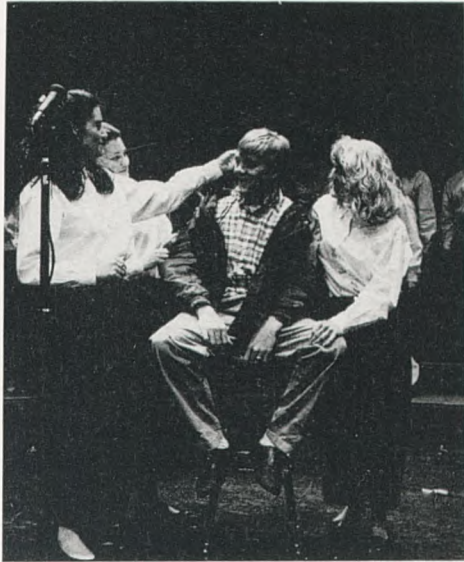

Just a little get together to celebrate Dr. Paschall's birthday.

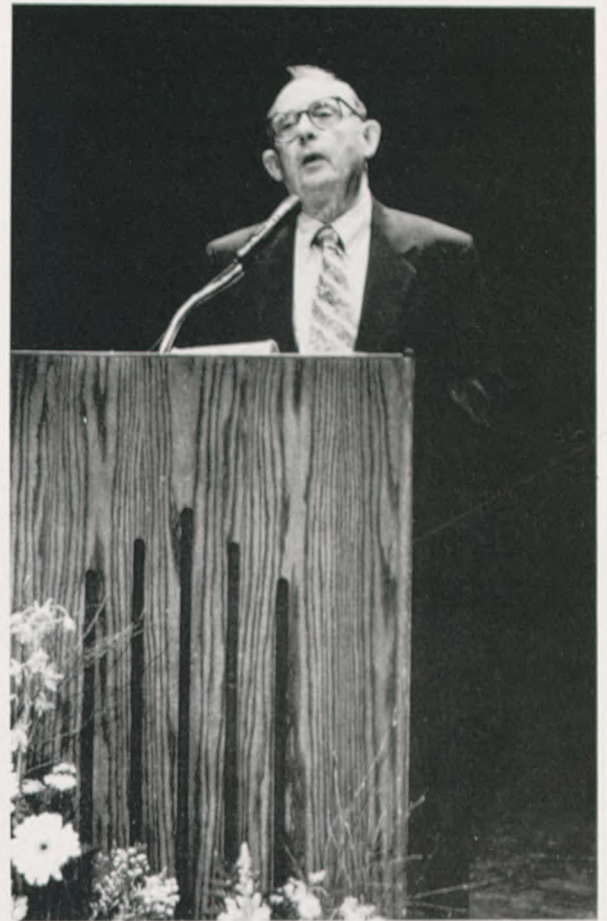

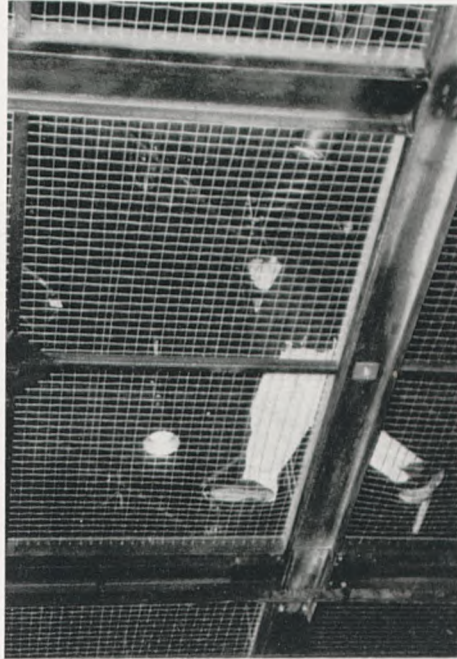

All the teachers were there to wish Dr. Paschall a happy 50th birthday.

HOMECOMING

Once again, MBA had a great success with its Homecoming celebrations. For starters, every student met or exceeded his quota for ticket sales, raising thousands of dollars for the Mothers' Auxiliary. Then on Friday evening, the festivities began with the Spaghetti Supper, which featured delicacies brought in by the families of students. That night, the Big Red crushed the Hillwood Hilltoppers, rounding out a perfect Homecoming Friday. The celebration was not over, however; Saturday night saw the successful Homecoming Dance, as hundreds of students and their dates packed the gym, dressed up in halloween costumes and dancing to the music of DJ D-9 and friends.

COMMENCEMENT

This year's Commencement exercises completed a year of great emotion. The loss of two of our greatest coaches and the retirement of Dr. Paschall served not to dampen our spirits but to drive us further in an effort to display what they had taught us. This year's graduating seniors exemplified the phrase "Gentleman, Scholar, Athlete," as they gained national recognition in community service, academics, music, and sports. It is sad to see them go, yet uplifting to know that MBA has given them the resources with which they have succeeded.

Taylor Harris delivers the Valedictory.

Salutatorian Jim Bowen addresses the assembled students, faculty, and guests.

Class President Robert West gives the Benediction.

The seniors stand as the teachers proceed to their seats.

Russ Allen receives his diploma from Dr. Paschall.

The Chorus sang two numbers, then returned at the end to lead the crowd in the "Alma Mater."

Dr. Douglas D. Paschall

Headmaster

Throughout his six years on the Hill, Dr. Paschall has shown amazing leadership in almost every aspect of the MBA community. In addition to his countless responsibilities as our Headmaster, Dr. Paschall also finds time to teach a junior English course. For all of his efforts, he could never be sufficiently thanked. This year Dr. Paschall was honored with the Dedication of the Paschall Theatre, as well as being inducted into Totomoi. Dr. Paschall graduated from the University of the South, where he was President of the Order of Gownsmen and Phi Beta Kappa. He received his M.A. and D. Phil. in English Literature from the University of Oxford, while studying there as a Rhodes Scholar.

• Faculty •

MARTHA THURMOND

Director of Junior School

Mrs. Martha Thurmond is in her second year of teaching at MBA. She is Director of the Junior School, and she teaches 7th grade IPS. Mrs. Thurmond earned a B.S., M.Ed., and Ed.S. from the University of Georgia.

DAMON REGEN

Director of the High School

Mr. Regen is currently Director of the High School, teaches Algebra II and Geometry, and was an assistant varsity football coach. Mr. Regen holds a B.E. from Vanderbilt.

THOMAS DEMONG

Director of Studies

Mr. Demong, presently in his third year at MBA, teaches English and is Director of Studies. He has earned a B.A. from Colby College, an M.A. from Middlebury College, and a M. Ed. from Teachers College, Columbia University.

JOHN BENNETT

Director of Athletics

Mr. Bennett has served MBA for over 30 years. He presently teaches two geometry classes and serves as the chairman of the Discipline Board. Although he is one of MBA's most venerable teachers, he says that working with teens keeps him forever young. He received his B.E. from Vanderbilt.

JAMES POSTON

Director of Guidance

Mr. Poston is Director of Guidance Counseling for MBA. He also teaches English I and 7th grade Enrichment. Mr. Poston holds an M.A. from Peabody College and a B.A. from Belmont College.

JANET HENSLEY

Director of Admissions

Ms. Hensley is in her second year of instruction at M.B.A. She teaches Ancient and Medieval History, and is Director of Admissions and Financial Aid. Ms. Hensley graduated with a Poli-Sci. degree from Randolph-Macon and an M.A.T. from U.N.C.

ROBERT PATRICK

Director of College Counseling

In his first year at MBA, Mr. Patrick teaches one section of English I and serves as Director of College Counseling. Mr. Patrick has a B.A. in English from Kenyon College and a J.D. from the University of Connecticut School of Law.

Laird Smith

Director of Physical Plant

For the past twenty-one years, Mr. Laird Smith Jr. has taken pride in maintaining the beautiful campus and buildings on The Hill. Mr. Smith graduated from MBA in 1958. He attended Vanderbilt University, and fortunately came back to Montgomery Bell Academy in 1973.

Sam Jackson

Director of Finance

Mr. Jackson is in his first full year as the Director of Finance at MBA. He came to The Hill in March of 1993 and has been a valuable member of the administration ever since, controlling all the fiscal matters of the school. Mr. Jackson received his B.A. from Auburn University.

Mildred Simmons

Sue Miller

Head Librarians

Mrs. Simmons received her B.A. from Cumberland University and her M.L.S. from Peabody College. Mrs. Miller received her B.A. from Westmar College and her M.L.S. from Peabody College of Vanderbilt.

Tom Weaver

Director of Development

Director Tom Weaver and Administrative Assistants Ruth Napier and Peggy Kirby run the Alumni and Development Office. They are responsible for organizing alumni events, creating the school magazine, and fundraising. The Alumni Office's calendar consists of a variety of events during the school year and summer months. The office also works closely with the Board of Directors in managing programs such as the Distinguished Alumni Award.

The Alumni Office's primary publication is a school magazine produced triannually. Articles on a variety of subjects are solicited from alumni, faculty, and students.

Finally the Development effort of the school offers MBA's friends the opportunity to support the school's financial operation. The "Forging a Generation Ahead" campaign, launched in 1991, has been very successful, enabling the completion of the Davis Building and other campus improvements.

Office Staff

The eight members of the MBA office staff are a vital part of the school. Mrs. Peggy Kirby and Mrs. Ruth Napier help Mr. Weaver in the Alumni and Development Office. Mrs. Nancy Miles is in charge of Academic Records. Mrs. Alleen Garriott serves as administrative assistant to the headmaster. Mrs. Carmen Morrissey is the Junior School secretary and is also the cheerleading sponsor. Mrs. Virginia Bradshaw is the receptionist for the upper school. Mrs. Janice Sowell keeps the financial records on an oversized desk. Mrs. Judy Welhoelter gets the seniors into colleges and provides candy to keep our sugar levels high (she also assists Mr. Patrick).

Dedication

Mrs. Martha Thurmond has been instrumental in the development of the junior school and its programs. In her presence, the junior school has been able to better prepare students for the upper school. Her pursuit for developing gentlemen, scholars, and athletes is our reason for dedicating the junior school portion of The 1994 Bell to Mrs. Martha Thurmond.

Editors' Note

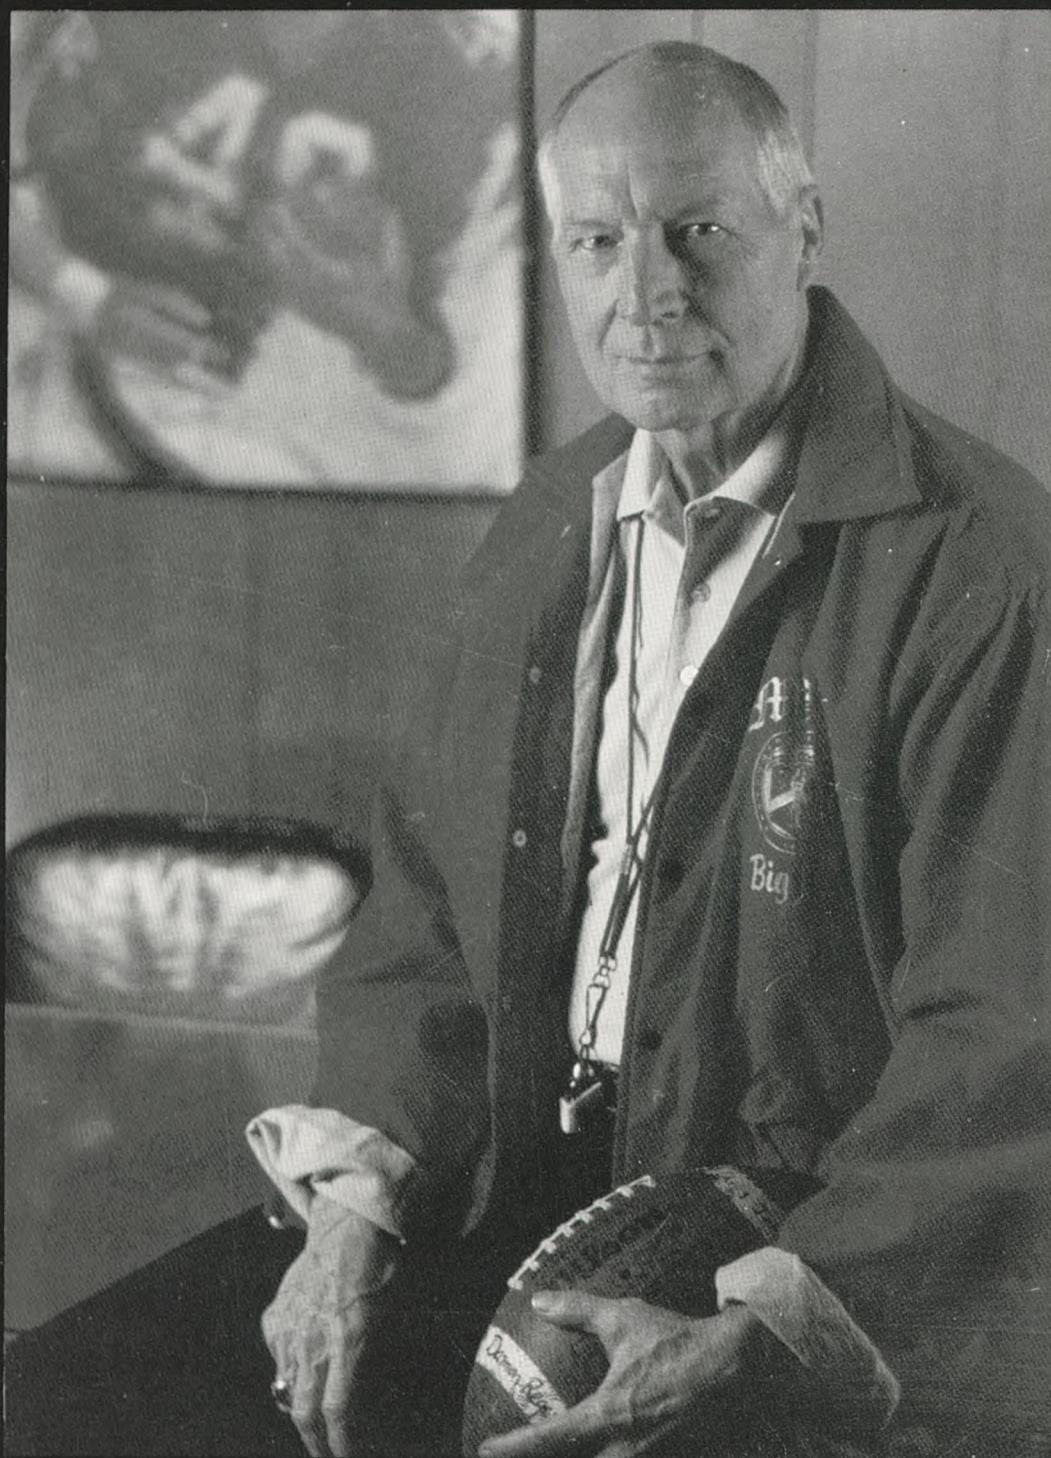

Captains' Log(not that we have a log): We embarked upon a journey three years ago to try to find an extracurricular activity that would help get us into college. We think we found it, but we made a wrong turn somewhere and ended up in hell. Webster's Dictionary defines "hell" as: the top floor of the Ball Hall where there is a potpourri of no work, less sleep, disorder, bad comedy, no social life, and a nasty odor coming from the stolen Lay-Z-Boy, not Michael. Our journey has been successful in that we are going to Stanford and Johns Hopkins(if you were wondering, our acceptances are NOT based upon our brains). It is three-thirty in the morning, Michael hasn't brushed his teeth in three days and Ryan has green armpits as we run on caffeine, printer ink, and an insatiable desire to get the heck out of Dodge. We've lost several thousand Spring Break T-Shirts, two aerobie's, our social lives (have we mentioned that before?), several phones, respect for the school, one Ball Building table, and our innocence. But we have gained a new respect for toilets and elevators, Taco Bell(the cheap menu, the friendly employees, and the free drink refills), Flagg(nah), the power of keys(nuts), and a warm bed and home cooking. All in all, was it worth it? Go see it in The Yearbook from Hell II: The Search for True Comedy. Don't misunderstand us, we love MBA and all it has done for us, but as for now, we never want to set foot on the Hill again. Peace out, word to your mother, we're outta here, and all that jazz. See you on the other side!

In a rare sign of unity, Ryan and Michael would like to thank:

- Mr. Weaver, for all the last minute photos, advice, and help.
- Mrs. Welhoelter, for keeping us high on candy and getting us into college.
- Mr. Moxley, for trusting us, making sure we keep to our deadlines, and the stuff we bought with the leftover shipping money
- Mr. Smith, for giving us keys to the building.
- Lujan, for putting up with our demands and complaining, and for doing a heck of a job.
- Dan, Anton, and Rishi, for a great job on the Senior Bios over Christmas Vacation, and for general buffolery.
- Robert, for being a good roommate, for sharing pictures and your computer, and for keeping us insane.
- Clay(big-hair boy), for your help on the final deadlines, for getting your work done on time, and your CD player. (Get a haircut!)
- Brooks, offering help, your fans, your waterguns, and the late-night Kroger runs.
- Barrett, for your random comedy and a spring break to make Robert and Michael sane again.
- Fly and Bruce, you guys were really organized and you actually sold ads.
- Nikki, for your tennis article, DQ Blizzards, and your noises on the computer.
- Elizabeth and Mrs. Eckstein, for being there to call and annoy.
- Betsy, for keeping Ryan sane, and for being repulsed by Michael.
- Our families, for understanding our late-night sessions, and for always giving us a place to stay and free food.
